3. Subject to be in red and body of note in black ink.

‡ Subject. Elect Comr's letter no 4579/247 dy 7-4-1893.

Remand Cleric to the Govt reference of Alagarchi Sawamayan village, Nanjangud Taluk, Mysore District.

* 1. Statement of case in narrative form in regular sequence of subject matter or date.
2. Opinions to be stated only as supported by precedents, or general rules which should always be quoted.
3. Serial numbers in file, &c., to be always stated.
4. Dates of important documents referred should be given.
5. Write on both sides, leaving the same side as margin.

* Note. The village was granted to Chick Siddanaje Urs by his brothers on Sawamanyam tenure under Sanad dated 10th June 1862. It seems to have passed to the present owners by means of sale in 1860 & 1862 (vide Col 18 in the Inam Settlement record). The sale deeds are not found in the record sent by the Comr with the letter under disposal. The Sanad Conceded "Ichal Paine" to the inamdar.

~~In the original Sale~~

The title deed (not found in the record) is said to mention nothing about "toddy." (vide the statement of Narasimhiengar agent of Mrs Narayindaraj Urs).

3 The following remarks are formed in the settlement proceedings:-

(1) Para 4 Col. 19. "Sampu, Sandi and Forest rights & right Sandal are enjoyed" of 30/6/79.

(2) Para 4. Col. 20. "The item of toddy is allowed so far as leasing the trees to the Govt: Contractor." of 8/8/80.

(3) Para 6. Col. 20. "The other items of abkari and all Govt rights in Forest are reserved." of 8/8/80.

The inamdars have not produced sufficient proof of their long & continued enjoyment in support of which the only document produced by them is a Copy of the lease executed by the Govt. Contractor for 1890-91 & 1891-92.

5 The Asstt Comm. Mr. C. Vaucha Rao, who investigated the claim has pleaded solely upon remark no 2 of the inam settlement, referred to above, and allowed to the inamdars only "tree rent" under rule 16. He does not say if any & what amount is due to the inamdars under the "Farming system" and "Pre liminary Free-Tax system".
But the Excise Comm^r, on the other hand, of opinion that reading the Samud along with the remarks nos 2 & 3 of the inam settlement, the claim to the Excise revenue is established.

6 Hunsa The village has a Shop and a grove. The Shop is said to have drawn its supplies from the stone v in other villages as well.

The examination of the "Titlodar" also seems necessary, as it is not clear how the remarks of the Deccan subol can be held to prejudice the claim when the title deed is silent about it.

There is no mention in the title to indicate that it right to the levy excise revenue was conceded to the Khandas. And on the justice of enjoyment of the right for 12 years since 1891-92-93. The agent's report that no evidence is forthcoming from the agent of the Khandas except that of Mudaliar - referred to already of the Excise Commissioner to allow the claim is to be upheld. Special orders are necessary as per rule 89 of F.S.D. 2 August 1903.

The Sanad of 1911 only conceded "Tolal Pyroo". In fact it conceded to (11)

the Inamdars every item of preserving only the item of ~~Toddy~~ "Sandal". When this Inam was settled in 1879-80 it has been recorded that "Sandi" (7) is one of the items of revenue enjoyed by the Inamdars. But a remark is made by the Inam Supdt that "the item † of Toddy is allowed so far as leasing the trees to the Govt Contractors & that the other items of Salami are preserved".
~~It is proposed to assess this~~ This Inam was settled long after the Inam Comm's Spc. No 16 of 13 Feby 1871. Consequently if "Toddy" 3) had been really presumed Compensable it should have been allowed. In as much as this is not done, the Inam Commr is of opinion that the Inam Settlement has presumed the claim may be accepted. The above question (with the (after order) seems to have been introduced to prevent the Inamdars themselves drawing Toddy & selling it. It is not understood why the item allowed to the Inamdars at the Settlement are not mentioned in the Register.
(8) 2. The next question is enjoyed for 12 yrs prior to 1892-93. In support

Q. Hes, one mukkalika covering a period of only 2 yrs 1890-92. is produced & no other document is said to be available - A clear report on this point was called for from the Spl Commr but the has not submitted it There is no other alternative than to dismiss the claim for the above defect or to allow the claim assuming 2 yrs enjoyt -

The petition of Ranga Nayindasetty, one of the Pramdars, dated 19 Dec 1901, refers to two decrees obtained by him against the Govt Contractor Chikmuddappa - one in 1887-88 & the other in 1891-92. These decrees have not been subd with the proceedings. The proceedings relating to them may throw further light on the question of enjoyment.

Para 19 of the Rules contemplates proof of enjoyment within the 12 years preceding the year 1892-93. Such proof seems to be available in about three years within the period referred to 17 This reply from the Sheristadar shows that this is a very clear case in favour of the Inamdar's claim to the Sheristadar revenue from toddy.

2 ✓ 6 To begin with, the Sanad alienating the village conceded to the Inamdar all items of revenue except Sandal. It mentions Sachelpairn among the several items of revenue assigned to the Inamdar. There is also a mention of Rs: 12-5-0 under "Panchabab" in the Huzur Kyfiat patti of 1838. This is proof of antecedent enjoyment as well as of a right to future enjoyment. It is in evidence that, in 1865, the Sheristadar revenue (Rs: 2750-00-00) was leased out for 3 years to Messrs Edward & Co: for a sum calculated on the average of the preceding five years' income. The same was leased out to a subsequent period of 5 years, 1870-75 to Messrs Ghan Dagla & Sons. The Inam Register recorded in 1880 that the item of Sandi was in the enjoyment of the Inamdar. The village Khanesi accounts recorded in the file show enjoyment for 23 The disposal of the case has already been delayed long and it is not desirable to add to such delay by returning the case to the District. Besides it is almost ready for decision. Whether Toddy Excise revenue formed part of the revenue alienated is the only point which requires verification from the old papers relating to the case, and for such verification the file is referred again to the Vernacular Records Branch.

The above discussion shows that the details of revenue alienated by the Samad are not forthcoming. Hence a decision should be recorded on other aspects of the case which are all favourable to the party concerned - vide paras 5 to 8 of these notes.

The view taken by the Sheristadar in his letter No. 4864 dated the 19.11.08 may be accepted & the claim recognized.

28 The Mutchalikas refused to in the office note Show that from the year 1865 at least the Zamindar was leasing the trees including the right to Sell to the Government Contractors. These rights have been Enforced in favour of the Zamindars and against the Contractors at least on two occassions by the Deputy Commr of Mysore on petitions Submitted to him in 1887 and in 1892. It will thus be Seen that the Zamindars Enjoyed the right within 12 years prior to 1892-93. There is a Shop as well as a grove in the village

29 As regards the remarks in the Vernacular by the Vernacular Records Branch, I gather that no mention is made of Sendi or panchabet in the accounts relating to the assets of the village in question up to the year 1865. But, I Submit, Revenue and General Depts.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the record of enquiry relating to the toddy revenue of Alaganchi Sarvamanya village, Inam-gangood Taluk, I have the honour to state that in the Sunnad of this village "Eachelpp" is specifically mentioned as in the Sunnads of other similar villages to which Toddy Revenue has been conceded at the Inam Settlement. In the Inam Settlement-Regis-ter "Sendi" is included as one of the items of revenue enjoyed. In para 4 of the Inam Superintendent's order, dated 8th August 1880, it is stated "the items of toddy is allowed so far as leasing the trees to the Government-Contractor" but in para 6 it is mentioned "the other items of Abkari and all Government rights in Forest are reserved". After reading reading the Summary of the village along with the spirit of the Inam Superintendents' order of the 8th August 1880. I am of opinion that the Inamdar is entitled to Excise Revenue from Toddy. There is both a toddy shop and a date grove in the village; and the shop sometimes gets toddy supply from the groves in other villages. Accord-ingly Excise Revenue is payable to him subject to Rules 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 in Government Proceedings No. 2014-8: R.F. 1664

dated 2nd August 1901

Office of the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore, dated 10th November 1908.

From

H.H. Sparkes, Esquire, Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

To

K.S. Chendrasekhara Aiyer, Esquire, B.A.,B.L., Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, General & Revenue Departments.

Sir,

Adverting to your docket No.526/ Ex.F.No.12-01, dated 29t January 1904 calling for additional information regarding the Inamdar's claim to the Excise Revenue from toddy of Sarvamanya Alaganchi village in the Nanjangud Taluk, I have the honor to submit herewith the correspondence ending with the Mysore Deputy Commissioner's docket No.313, dated 3rd instant together with th four files of records received therewith.

2. The Sannad alienating the village was given by His Highn the late Maharaja Sri Krishnaraja Wadayar Bahadur III on the 10t June 1826 to Chicka Siddaraja Urs granting him the village of Alaganchi with a beriz of 875-1-5 on Sarvamanya tenure and concedes "Eachal pairu" to the Inamdar. In the Huzur Sarvamanya kyfiat Patti of 1838 a sum of 12-5-0 is shown as the income from Panchabab in the village-vide column 14 of the Inam register of enquiry.

3. At the Inam Settlement conducted in the year 1880 the Inam Assistant Mr.B. Rajagopaliah has recorded in column 19 ther -of that Sayer, sendi and forest rights except sandal are enjoye Sendi is also mentioned as one of the items enjoyed. In column 20 of the register, the Inam Superintendent has recorded in para 4 that the item of toddy is allowed so far as leasing the trees to the Government contractor. In para 6 it is remarked that the other items of Abkari and all Government rights in Forest are reserved. The remarks of the Superintendent cannot mean, in the the circumstances of this case, anything else than that the Inamdar is not allowed to derive any toddy excise from his village except through the Government contractor. The distinction between tree rent and excise duty cannot be expected to have been maintai-ed at the time of the Inam settlement and the words "other items of Abkari" occurring in para six are significant enough. If tree rent was meant there was no necessity to mention the same as such a right was a concession included in the tenure itself. Besides the proofs of enjoyment of nothing shorter than the Excise revenue from toddy of the village prior and sunsequent to the Inam Settlement, which will be referred to in the next para, confirm this view of the decision of the Inam Superintendent. Instances of allowed claims are not wanting in which similar remarks have been made by the Inam Superintendent in the Inam registers of enquiry. Nachanahalli village in the Mysore Taluk may be cited as one of the instances.

4. There is both a toddy shop and a date grove in the village. Mutchalika dated 1st March 1865 executed by Messrs Edwards & Co, proves the enjoyment from 1865 to 1868 and that dated 23rd April 1870 executed by Messrs Taylor & Co, brings the enjoyment to 1875. The Inamdar must have recived similar amounts from the contractors for the years 1875 to 1880 but the investigating officer has not called for these records as he has confined his enquiry into the question of enjoyment for the period of 12 years immediately preceding 1892-93. The extracts from the khangi accounts of the Inamdar filed in the records, the decrees in Revenue Miscellaneous case No.19 pf 1887-88 and No.16 of 1891-92 on the file of the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, and the Mutchalika dated 8th October 1891 executed by Chicka Muddappa and Company complete the uninterrupted enjoyment of the right by the Inamdar up to the year 1892-93. I am, therefore, of opinion that the Inamdar is entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy of the village as the right has been conceded by the Sannad and recognized at the Inam Settlement and is established by long enjoyment.

5. The case falls under rules 2, 3, 5, 9 and 11 of the rules rules of the 2nd August 1901.
